£24M ROAD PLAN DIVIDES OPINION

Concerns raised over impact on the community

A NEW £24 million road investment scheme across Basingstoke has split councillors over the impact it will have on the community.

Detailed plans for work on five roundabouts and three Basingstoke roads were unveiled to residents at a public exhibition in Popley held last Thursday afternoon.

The highway works are part of a string of road improvements set to be completed over the next three years with the aim of reducing congestion and increasing safety on Basingstoke's roads.

But having seen the short-term traffic problems caused to road users by the Black Dam Roundabout on the M3 junction 6 slip road to the A339, Basingstoke and Deane borough councillor Paul Miller raised concerns on the proposal.

The councillor for Chineham said: "I'm told the whole thing

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

will take three years to complete, so I'm very concerned about all of the extra delays this will bring.

"People already have to plan extra time for their trips to get anywhere in Basingstoke at the moment.

"I would hope that it would benefit us all further down the line, but unfortunately my crystal ball is misty and I can't see into the future."

The exhibition at Popley Fields Community Centre outlined the plans for staggered work on the A340 Thornycroft roundabout, A340/A30 Winchester Road roundabout, A33 Crockford roundabout, A33 Binfields roundabout and A33 Taylors Farm roundabout.

Indian Ocean epic is back on

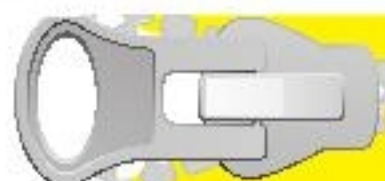

BASINGSTOKE adventurer James Ketchell (left) has embarked on his mammoth world record attempt to row across the Indian Ocean in under 86 days.

The man dubbed Captain Ketch and his partner in crime Ashley Wilson finally left the starting blocks at Ger-aldton in Australia at the fourth time of asking last Friday - having been delayed for around three months.

The wait is over for Captain Ketch

AFTER 11 weeks of frustration and countless television interviews, Basingstoke adventurer Captain Ketch has finally set off on his mission to row across the Indian Ocean in world record time.

James Ketchell and rowing partner Ashley Wilson are currently 200 miles into their 3,600-mile quest – having left Geraldton in Australia last Friday.

The man dubbed Captain Ketch is hoping to reach Port Louis in Mauritius in under 86 days, while raising funds for charity at the same time.

Speaking from the boat via satellite phone yesterday morning, he told the Observer he and Ash were still confident of smashing the world record, despite the elements which are battling against them.

He said: "It's been a slow, frustrating start and we've had a few issues with strong winds and storms, but we're confident that we can get through it."

"That's the thing with rowing, you never know what's around the corner, but all is good with us so far."

A mixture of bad weather and boat malfunctions has ensured that the challenge has had to be postponed at the eleventh hour

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

no less than three times.

The delay has resulted in the duo becoming Australian celebrities in the process, due to the size of the task and the fact that Ash suffers from epilepsy and has seizures at least once a week.

And having already come into close contact with both a great white shark and several dolphins – as well as spotting a humpback whale breach the water – Captain Ketch admitted to being hugely relieved to have finally got in the water.

He added: "We've only been going for five days so it's difficult to judge how I feel so far and how hard it's been, but ask me in 50 more and I'm sure I'll have some very strong things to say!"

"We've already seen some incredible sights, but I think it's one of those things we'll both really enjoy when we're looking back in the days afterwards."

The rowing pair are raising money for the Elifor Foundation, The Scout Association and Young Epilepsy. To donate, go to nothings-impossible.co.uk.

Plans revealed for roads work

• From front page

Improvements will also be undertaken at the A340 Aldermaston Road, A33 Popley Way and A339/A33 Ringway Junction, with the works funded by a mix of the borough council, Hampshire County Council and the government's Local Growth Fund.

The Aldermaston Road project will be the first to commence work in late August, while the last will start at Taylors Farm in 2017 – improvements Chineham councillor Joyce Bowyer claimed "should have happened years ago".

Cllr Bowyer said: "I live on Taylors Farm, so like everyone else, the problems with the roads have affected me too.

"It'll undoubtedly be a bit of a disruption but once it's all open and finished, it'll be great."

"Some people are for it and some people are against the works, but the question is do we need them?"

"The answer to that is, yes we do need them."

News BitesSolar farm

WOOTTON ST LAWRENCE: Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council have received a planning application for the construction of a £5million solar farm in Wootton St Lawrence.

The solar park would be located on land near Shothanger Works in Shothanger Lane and would help generate renewable electricity for the area for 25 years.

It would then be removed after this time, with no damage to the existing land.

The plans would also see the erection of fencing, the creation of a switch room building, inverter units and a customer cabin.

Assault image

BASINGSTOKE: Police have released a CCTV image of a man wanted into connection with an assault last Friday morning.

A 25-year-old man suffered serious injuries to his jaw after being punched in the face while attempting to break up an argument between the suspect and one of his friends.

The assault took place in Wote Street between 4am and 4.30am, with the offender described as black, in his late 20s and 6ft tall.

He also had short hair and was wearing a dark jacket and jeans.

Anyone with information is asked to contact DC Darrin Carey at Northern Investigation Team on 101 and quote 44150111848.

Drunk driver jailed after assaulting police officer

A DRUNK driver has been jailed for nearly two years after subjecting a police-woman to "one of the worst cases of assault on a police officer" a judge had ever seen.

Innocent Fowung threw PC Vikki Sharpe from his car during a sustained 15-minute attack after being pulled over at the side of the M3 near Basingstoke for driving erratically on June 15 last year.

The Hampshire Constabulary officer managed to handcuff the 46-year-old to his steering wheel before being violently flung against the side of the vehicle after Fowung had deliberately reversed into her car.

Appearing at Winchester Crown Court on June 18, the court heard how the defendant began to act aggressively after failing a breathalyse test, with a struggle ensuing after PC Sharpe arrested him and managed to take away his keys.

Fowung pleaded guilty to charges of assaulting a police officer, dangerous driving and driving over the limit - receiving consecutive sentences of 12 months and 10 months for the offences.

Roads policing officer PC Sharpe suffered a broken hand and damage to her ribs, back and shoulder from the attack, and revealed to the court that the incident had left a lasting effect on her.

She said: "I have seriously considered resigning from my job, something that I never thought I would do."

"It has made me doubt myself, my abilities and why I am a police officer."

"The incident took its toll on me both physically and mentally."

Fowung, of Deedmore Road, Coventry, left the officer seriously injured at the side of the motorway before being apprehended by another roads policing unit shortly afterwards.

As well as the two consecutive prison sentences, Fowung was also handed a driving ban of three years, at the end of which he will have to take an extended retest.

Recorder Nicholas Haggan said: "This was a prolonged, sustained assault and was one of the worst cases of assault on a police officer whilst resisting arrest that I have ever seen."

BASINGSTOKE AND DEANE: Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council will meet next Thursday evening.

The full council meeting will start at 6.30pm and is expected to last until 9.30pm at the council's civic offices in London Road.

Couples TV show

BASINGSTOKE: Local residents are being invited to apply to appear as contestants on Channel 4 TV show Couples Come Dine With Me.

Filming would take place during the week of August 17 for the cooking show, which sees three couples each host a dinner party and score each other, with £1,000 awarded to the winners.

Anyone interested in taking part can email tim.thomson@shilver.tv.

Crowded trains

BASINGSTOKE: Basingstoke MP Maria Miller has called for the size of trains in Basingstoke to be increased to help cope with overcrowding on trips to and from London.

Mrs Miller met with South West Trains and other members of parliament last Thursday to discuss investment for the move, while she predicted that 60 per cent more space will be needed on trains passing through Basingstoke by 2043.

She said: "There is already overcrowding at peak times and passengers boarding at Basingstoke regularly face having to stand all the way to London."

Man assaulted during South Ham robbery

A 44-YEAR-OLD man was assaulted before having his phone stolen by two men during a robbery in Basingstoke on Saturday morning.

The victim was knocked to the ground during the attack between 5am and 5.30am after receiving a blow to the head while walking down a flight of stairs close to Morrisons, near Deep Lane in South Ham.

Thieves then rummaged through the man's pockets as he lay on the ground and took his Blackberry mobile phone before running off in the direction of George Street.

The offenders are both described as white, in their 20s, of slim build and about 5ft 7ins tall.

Police are now appealing for anyone who may have witnessed the robbery on Saturday or knows the identity of the two suspects to come forward.

Detective Constable Jonathan

Duggan from the Northern Investigation Team said: "I'd like to hear from anyone who may have seen these men in the area at the time."

He added: "I'm also keen to hear from anyone who may have been offered a Blackberry mobile phone for sale."

Anyone with any information is asked to contact DC Duggan on 101 quoting 44150227437, or anonymously by phoning Crimestoppers on 0800 555111.

Retired Tadley scientist named as Tunisia victim

A TADLEY resident who used to work for the Atomic Weapons Establishment (AWE) in Berkshire has been named as one of the victims of last month's horrific terrorist attack in Tunisia.

David Thompson, 80, was among the 38 fatalities from the mass shooting of holidaymakers on a beach near Sousse 11 days ago.

A total of 30 Britons were among the victims of the attack, which saw Islamist radical Seifeddine Rezgui gun down dozens of tourists in a single attack.

An inquest was opened on Monday, with West London coroner Chinyere Inyama confirming that Mr Thompson died from a gunshot wound to the chest.

Following the release of the retired scientist's identity, the Thompson family issued a statement asking to be allowed to grieve in private "at this extremely difficult time".

The statement read: "We understand the interest the media has at this time, but we do not wish to be approached by, nor speak to any members of the media."

"We ask that you respect our privacy and our wishes at this extremely difficult time."

Mr Thompson's body was

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

repatriated from Tunisia last Friday afternoon, with each of the British victims flown home to RAF Brize Norton near Carterton in Oxfordshire in the days following the attack.

The former Atomic Weapons Establishment scientist was from The Green, in Tadley, and was understood to be extremely healthy and active for his age.

A minute's silence was observed at St Paul's Church, in The Green, on Friday at noon as a mark of respect.

Friends, neighbours and Tadley residents filled the church to pay their respects to Mr Thompson.

Tadley Town Council chairman David Leeks was among those who labelled the news of Mr Thompson's death as a "very sad occasion indeed".

Cllr Leeks said: "We're all very saddened by the news and it's come as a massive shock to everyone."

"From what I'm told about him, he seems to have been a very nice and popular chap."

"I understand that he was very outgoing and active for a man of his years and loved to go on long walks and dance - it's such a great shame."

Tadley South councillor Robert Musson added: "He lived just around the corner from me, and so of course, my thoughts immediately go out to his family."

Cllr Musson added: "Unfortunately, as this tragedy has shown and as our government have pointed out, something like this can happen to anyone, no matter where they're from."

Council sends out warning to house hunters in borough

RESIDENTS waiting for a new home have been urged by Basingstoke's council to ensure that they reapply to the housing list.

Each of the 8,000 applicants currently on the waiting list have been contacted and will be removed if they do not return the appropriate forms by August 1.

Under changes approved by Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council's cabinet last month, people will be considered for social housing that are most in need and have a local connection to the area.

The new scheme will also stop people with a household income of over £50,000 a year or savings of over £30,000 from applying, apart from in exceptional cases where a need to move to the area is proven.

Cabinet member for housing and regeneration Cllr Terri Reid said: "This scheme is fairer and simpler, giving priority to those people who are local and most in need of housing."

"It is very important that those applicants who meet the new criteria and want to be considered for the housing register fill in and return their renewal form or they will be removed from the list."

The new housing list will be in place by the start of October, with help and advice for those who are removed set to be made available through the council's new online advice tool 'Housing Options Online'.

Players wanted

BASINGSTOKE: Basingstoke Blizzards Basketball Club will be holding a welcome session for youngsters this Sunday.

Anyone aged between seven and 16 years old is welcome, with mixed ability sessions ranging from beginner to advanced levels to ensure that anyone can give it a go.

Sessions for under 16s and under 14s will take place from 12.30pm to 2pm at Queen Mary's College in Cliddesden Road, with a class for under 12s then taking place afterwards until 3.30pm.

Classes cost £3 per person.

Carers Café

BASINGSTOKE: Carers from across Basingstoke are invited to come together this Friday to meet others in their position at a support group in South Ham.

St Peter's Church Hall will play host to the Carers Café - a monthly event thrown by local organisation Carers Together.

The free meeting gives carers a chance to relax and speak to others in their position about issues that matter most to them.

The group will meet from 12.30pm to 2.30pm.

School fete

ASHFORD HILL: Ashford Hill Primary School is throwing its summer fete this Saturday in Ashford Hill Road.

Youngsters will get the chance to race around on go karts, play on the bouncy castle and beat the goalie, among other different activities.

Stone rises to Ukip Hampshire chairman

FORMER Basingstoke MP candidate Alan Stone has been appointed as the new chairman of Ukip Hampshire.

Mr Stone was selected for the new role by members of his party last Thursday after claiming 8,290 votes at the general elections on May 7 – a 11.5 per cent increase on five years previously.

And the antiques dealer has backed himself to ensure support generated for the party locally continues to rise under his charge.

Mr Stone told the Observer: "Ukip is well-known for its members having their own differing views on certain things, but everyone seems to be working together really well at the moment."

"It's a really good opportunity for myself and I'm really excited to take on the challenge."

"I've got some good ideas that I believe will keep our momentum of support going and bring the party forward in Hampshire."

Mr Stone stepped down from his position as leader of Ukip Basingstoke to become deputy chairman, and will hand over the reins to Stan Tennesen.

He added: "I think it would be unfair of me to be the chairman of both, but I'm confident the support for Ukip will remain in Basingstoke."

"I've got the support of the county council, so I'm really excited about the future."

Deputy leader backs extra council powers

"WE know what our town needs much better than someone sitting miles away in Whitehall."

That was the message from Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council's new deputy leader Terri Reid on Thursday as she lent her support to a plan to create a combined authority for Hampshire.

The move would see government powers and funds for transport, health, education and other services devolved down to Hampshire County Council and the area's various borough authorities – including Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council.

And after the idea was unanimously backed by each of the county's council leaders at last month's Hampshire and Isle of Wight Local Government Association (HIOWLGA) meeting, Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council's deputy has joined them – labelling the plans as "more democratic".

Cllr Reid said: "We're not talking about Basingstoke's borders changing or losing any of its powers, we're talking about having better control over what we provide our residents."

She added: "It can only be a good thing if we can make the decisions, rather than them being filtered down through several lay-

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

ers of government."

If approved, all of the councils would keep their current powers and carry out their existing responsibilities alongside their new ones, with a committee containing each of the area's council leaders controlling an additional budget.

A letter is currently being drafted from HIOWLGA to the secretary of state for communities and local government, Greg Clark, to move the idea forward, although any change is understood to be years away and would have to be approved by full council.

Cllr Reid added: "People aren't interested about what happens elsewhere in Hampshire – they care about what happens here in Basingstoke, and this will help us better serve the area."

She continued: "We're much better able to see what the area needs than someone sitting miles away in Whitehall."

"This way of doing things is much more democratic."

The council's deputy leader Terri Reid

Condolence book

BASINGSTOKE: A book of condolence for the victims of the Tunisia terror attack has been set up at the reception of Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council offices in London Road. Tadley resident David Thompson was among the 37 people killed during a mass shooting on a beach near Sousse on Friday, June 26.

Mayor of Basingstoke Anne Court said: "The devastating news that one of the borough's residents was a victim in this tragedy has certainly shocked the close knit community of Tadley and also meant that, as a borough, we feel strong local connection to what is being felt nationally."

"Our thoughts and prayers go out to the family and friends of all the victims along with others affected by this tragedy."

Hospital survey

HAMPSHIRE: Hampshire Hospitals NHS Foundation Trust (HHFT) hospitals has been awarded an average score of seven out of 10 for patient satisfaction – a 2014 national survey has revealed.

A total of 83 per cent of patients gave HHFT the score, after being asked to fill out the survey at Basingstoke and North Hampshire Hospital, Andover War Memorial Hospital and Royal Hampshire County Hospital.

Of those, 82 per cent said they had confidence in the doctor treating them, while 80 per cent felt they were treated with dignity and respect.

The score was part of a 2014 National Inpatient Survey.

BASINGSTOKE'S best young cooks did battle at a MasterChef style tournament last week in the name of charity.

Cooking student Stephen Naylor emerged victorious after beating fellow Basingstoke College of Technology (BCoT) pupil Kennedy Abbot in Thursday's grand final.

The two 19-year-olds were tasked with creating a lavish two-course meal on a budget of just £50 for around 20 people at the college's purpose built restaurant in Worting Road.

Stephen's creation of a mackerel, beetroot and apple starter, followed by a main of lamb, consommé, and pomme purée narrowly swung the tie in his favour in the eyes of judge Gordon Stott, head chef and landlord at The Sun Inn.

Mr Stott said: "To coin a classic MasterChef phrase - I deliberated, cogitated and digested, and finally chose Stephen."

"His mackerel dish, in particular, was a triumph, and I'd happily include this on my menu."

City and Guilds level three diploma in food preparation and cooking students Stephen and Kennedy made the final cook off after beating two other BCoT trainees in the first round three days earlier.

A total of £510 was raised from the night for chosen Hampshire homeless charity the Society of St James after guests donated how much they thought each dish was worth.

The decision on who came out on top went to 24-year-old Mr Stott however, who became one of the youngest people in the country to hold the dual position of landlord and chef when he was appointed at the Dummer pub in 2010.

He added: "The standard was extremely high, and all the students involved should be proud of what they have achieved."

"Overall the competition was a huge success, and we're already planning what challenges we'll be throwing at next year's students hoping to be crowned MasterChef 2016."

Stephen was presented with a top of the range chef's knife set and a meal for two at the Michelin-starred L'Ortolan restaurant, while he is soon due to start a full-time position at Marwell Hotel, near Winchester.

Worries over 'age of austerity'

THE Tories 'Age of Austerity' is going to get a lot more painful as Osborne hits not just the most vulnerable, but thousands of households in our town.

It's not just that youth services are being cut by 80 per cent, or that many older people are now having to pay for their emergency alarms, or the threat of the loss of more income for disabled people, yet another disproportionate cut on top of everything else they've seen taken away.

The Tories are now taking aim at tax credits that help so many families and households make ends meet.

Allegedly, Osborne also plans to raise housing association rents by £70 a week for thousands of people.

In absolute contrast if you have a £1million house you'll be able to pass that on to your children, as Osborne increases inheritance tax allowances by £175,000 per person, on top of their existing £325,000 allowance.

The Institute for Fiscal Studies (IFS) say Osborne's proposals would disproportionately benefit wealthier people.

It's a £1billion giveaway for a few at the top.

It's one rule for them and another for the rest of us, and it does not make economic sense.

We need a budget that targets economic growth, increasing investment in businesses, housing, jobs and apprenticeships.

A budget that grows people's wage packets, not one that hits them. A budget that helps small businesses with tax and rent breaks.

A budget that offers a future to young people in jobs that pay a living wage. We need a budget for everyone.

Night at the Proms

ALTON: Classical music fans are in for a treat at a free evening of music at the Alton public gardens on Saturday.

The 'Last Night of the Proms' concert will see famous songs from across Europe performed by the Alton Concert Orchestra and Alton Choral Society.

Gates will open from 6pm for a 7.30pm start, with visitors urged to bring picnic blankets, hampers and deck chairs for the event.

Odiham Fire Show

ODIHAM: The popular Odiham Fire Show is due to return next month after last year's event was cancelled due to bad weather.

The show is dedicated to fire safety, with firefighters on hand to show how to put out fires alongside a display of modern and classic fire engines.

A fun fair will also be running at Lodge Farm in North Warnborough on Saturday, August 1 and Sunday, August 2.

The event will start from 10am, with tickets costing £5 for adults and £3 for children.

Charity balloons

BASINGSTOKE: Busy Bees nursery in Hatch Warren raised a total of £260 for children's charity Barnardo's at their annual open evening fundraiser on Friday.

A magician and balloon modeller entertained parents and children alike during the day, with each child sponsoring a balloon in a communal balloon release for the fundraiser.

London to Paris cycle conquered

THE idea of cycling 278 miles from London to Paris is a challenge most would only ever contemplate doing once in a lifetime.

But last Saturday saw Chesham businessman Mick Thompson take on – and beat – the epic route for the third time in the name of a charity close to his heart.

The 53-year-old pedalled the long and winding road to the Eiffel Tower in aid of Macmillan Cancer Support as a tribute to his parents, who both lost their fight against the disease.

And despite nursing a dodgy knee and battling 30 degree heat, the loss of his mum last year was all the inspiration Mick needed to complete the cross-channel challenge once again.

He said: "I did it in 2005 and 2006 so I knew what I was in for, but it was much tougher this time around because it was so hot."

"I've never drank so much liquid in my entire life and it was such a great relief to see the Eiffel Tower on the finishing line."

"Well, that was until I realised there was another five miles to

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

go to reach the hotel anyway – I just wanted to chuck the bike down and have a glass of wine!"

Mick's mum Liz Thompson lost her battle with stomach cancer in January last year, just over 10 years after the disease claimed dad Neville in 2003.

The PR business owner has so far raised over £3,500 in their memory from his trip, which saw him set off alongside 50 other cyclists last Wednesday.

And he was quick to thank the public for their generosity.

"Cancer is something that touches so many people's lives and the nurses who care for sufferers do such a fantastic job – I really don't know how they do it," said Mick.

"I'd just like to thank everyone who donated, no matter how small the amount."

"It's for such a great cause and I know my parents would be proud of me for doing my bit."

Town's stars of the future shine on sound stage

UP and coming musicians from across Basingstoke will step into the spotlight this weekend for the launch of a new stage in Festival Place shopping centre.

Six live acts will perform on the sound stage in the 'Summer Garden' in Festival Square on Saturday afternoon as part of a weekly line-up of activities and entertainment.

Basingstoke artists Chris Holden, Sam Brett, Rich Jacobs, Irene Nazimbwa, Simon Vincent and Mark Furmston will each be given a 30-minute slot to impress on the sound stage between 4pm and 8pm.

Marketing manager Sarah Murphy said: "Festival Place is delighted to launch the festival sound stage to provide some fantastic live entertainment for the people of Basingstoke and to give the region's future stars a chance to shine."

"I can't wait to see the artists take to the stage."

The shopping centre will also host acoustic and a cappella acts from 4pm to 8pm on the sound stage every Sunday throughout the summer until August 30.

Anyone interested in appearing on the sound stage this summer is asked to email a short performance to marketing@festivalplace.co.uk.

West Green Fruits was established in 1997, and is a family run business of 15 acres set in farmland near Hartley Wintney. We offer an extensive range of fruit through the season.

Our fruits include:

Strawberries, Raspberries, Rhubarb, Gooseberries, Tayberries, Tummelberries Black & Redcurrants, Blackberries and Summer vegetables.

When choosing the varieties of fruit we are going to grow we try to pick those that in our opinion have the best flavour.

Whilst flavour is obviously very personal we believe we can offer fruit that is consistently sweet with lovely flavour.

Some of our varieties are those not grown for mass supply and so will only be found at PYO outlets and in gardens.

We are open from early June to late September.

OCT will give accurate diagnosis:

- AMD
- Diabetic Maculopathy
- Macular Hole
- Epiretinal Membrane
- Early detection of Glaucoma

*It is estimated that approximately 2% of people over the age of 40 will have Glaucoma.

*Statistics obtained from The International Glaucoma Association.

What is an OCT scan?

This practice has invested in the very latest OCT scanning technology.

An Optical Coherence Tomography (OCT) scan is a unique test which uses near-infrared light reflected off the retina to produce a high resolution 3-Dimensional scan of the retina and associated structures.

It is particularly useful in the assessment of patients with AMD, Diabetic Maculopathy, early detection of Glaucoma and the management of these diseases. The test is non invasive, quick and entirely painless.

Am I at risk of Glaucoma?

Are you over 40?
Do you have a family history of Glaucoma?
Are you short sighted?
Do you have diabetes?
Are you of African-Caribbean origin?

If the answer is yes to any of these questions, then you are at an increased risk and should definitely have your eyes tested regularly.*

Why has this practice invested in OCT?

We believe this advanced imagery allows us to detect and monitor early stages of diseases and as this examination is not available under the NHS, we make an additional charge for this scan. Please ask for further details.

This assessment of your eyes using OCT Technology will give us the most accurate diagnosis possible and help us give you the best advice to protect your sight and the health of your eyes.

Your eyes deserve the benefits of cutting edge technology available at this practice.

Celeb chefs cook up feast in Top of Town

FOOD fanatics from across Basingstoke will be given cooking tips from some of the best chefs in the business next month.

Top of Town will host a live food theatre from award winning chef Jean-Christophe Novelli as part of Hampshire Fare's 15th annual county food festival.

The French celebrity chef will be on hand on Sunday, August 8 to give members of the public a masterclass in how to cook up Hampshire's finest produce.

Joining him will be James Durrant from the Good Food Guide's UK Pub of the Year; the Plough at Longparish, while a string of other local chefs will also provide tips to aspiring star cooks.

Regional food stalls and live music will be performed by the London Vegetable Orchestra from 10am across Market Place, Wote Street and London Street.

The event is funded by Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council, with deputy leader Terri Reid urging residents to get involved.

Cllr Reid said: "This is a wonderful opportunity to attract more people to the area and show them what we have to offer."

"There is something for all taste buds to enjoy so come along and sample Hampshire Fare at the Top of the Town."

Basingstoke's music festival

By Christian Wilson

christian@observergroup.co.uk

THOUSANDS of music fans are expected to descend on War Memorial Park this weekend for the return of Basingstoke Live.

The annual two-day festival will showcase a variety of genres from a mix of well-renowned artists and Hampshire talent.

A blend of rock, reggae, indie and electronic genres will be spread across five different stages at the free concert, which will officially bring this year's Basingstoke Festival to a close.

Headlining the main stage on the Saturday will be electronic rock group The Qemists, who will be bringing their fusion of drum 'n' bass and rock to town.

The Brighton-based group are best known for their collaboration with Grime artist Wiley for the 2008 single Dem Na Like Me.

While Sunday's headliners Mungo Jerry, are best known for their 1970s smash hit In the Summertime - which ranks as one of the best-selling singles ever released.

Joining the two acts on the main stage throughout the weekend will be Lauren Thalia, Fake The

• The Real Thing performing at Basingstoke Live last year

Attack, Little Freddie and the Rock 'n' Roll Flames and Groove Republic.

Over 100 different acts have performed since the launch on June 19 of the Basingstoke and Deane Borough Council-funded Basingstoke Festival on pop-up stages and theatres across the town.

Council portfolio holder for partnerships Cathy Osselton said: "Basingstoke Live is a fantastic two-day free event which showcases the best in local talent alongside national and international performers.

"It is a hugely popular music event and the perfect way to finish this year's Basingstoke Festival."

Rock bands The Wicked Venetians, Flashfires, The Afterparty and Empire will each play on the Amped Stage across the two days, with the Unplgd! Stage hosting acoustic acts.

Fans of hip-hop, grime and drum 'n' bass are urged to check out the Sunrise Stage on the Saturday, with the tempo set to slow down somewhat the following day for a mixture of reggae, soul and funk acts.

The music festival will also feature drumming and DJ workshops on the Creative Stage, as well as graffiti workshops, circus skills and face painting.

Strongest Novice

BASINGSTOKE: Four men and women put their muscle where their mouth is to be crowned Basingstoke's Strongest Novice 2015 last weekend.

The weight lifting competition, in its second year, saw Farah Fonceca clinch the title in the women's under 70kg, and Kerry Baker take the over 70kg crown.

Gary Dinsey claimed the under 95kg men's, while Brett Miles powered his way to victory in the over 95kg.

Elite Bodyworks gym, in Kingsclere Road, Houndmills, hosted the competition, which is in its second year.

Barky Malarky

BASINGSTOKE: A charity dog show will take place at Basingstoke War Memorial Park this month.

'Barky Malarky' will see dogs from across Basingstoke and Deane compete for the titles of most handsome dog, prettiest female and best fancy dress.

The event will take place between 11am and 4pm on Sunday, July 19, with all funds raised going to retired police dog charity Pension For Paws and Hampshire Search and Rescue Dogs.

Diabetes advice

BASINGSTOKE: Basingstoke Market Square will host a Diabetes UK roadshow this month.

Residents will be able to speak to consultants for information on how to reduce their risk of getting Type 2 diabetes.

The 'Know Your Risk' event will take place outside the Willis Museum on Monday, July 20 and Tuesday, July 21.

Sudoku

The objective is to fill a 9×9 grid with digits so that each column, each row, and each of the nine 3×3 sub-grids that compose the grid (also called "boxes", "blocks", "regions", or "sub-squares") contains all of the digits from 1 to 9. The puzzle setter provides a partially completed grid, which for a well-posed puzzle has a unique solution.

School's out!

THIS summer, The Look Out Discovery Centre, Bracknell, (opposite Coral Reef), is the place to come to! It's a great place to meet friends as it's easy to get to from the M3, J3 and M4, J10. There are over 90 fun hands-on science and discovery activities, a fantastic adventure play area, 1000 hectares of Crown Estate woodland, a coffee shop, gift shop and picnic area.

This summer we have the Yucky You show on for a small additional charge to the entrance fee. This ½ hour science show is a fun and interactive look at the unsavoury parts of our body. Where else can you hear about scabs, poo, sick and bogies! Suitable for children aged 3+/who can sit still for ½ hour. Please look at the website for more details. Open daily 10am - 5pm (except 24th-26th December and 11-15 Jan 2016). Less than £20 for a saver ticket, for 2a+2c or 1a+3c. Under 4's free entry. £2 to park for 4 hours. However, visitors (full paying adult and saver tickets only) to the hands-on science exhibition who pay on the day will be given a £2 discount, (parking stub needs to be shown at time of purchase).

Galleon Marine

The place to have fun on the water!

Some people are unaware that the beautiful Basingstoke Canal runs through Odiham, not more than 1/2km from the high street!

Many local people are involved in the preservation of the canal to ensure it remains a great place to visit.

Galleon Marine, which is under new ownership, is a perfect base from which to explore by narrowboat, rowboat, kayak, canoe or foot. Please feel free to come and look around, have a picnic in our colourful garden and enjoy the view. We are opposite the Waterwitch Pub.

Tea and coffee now available from our canal-side kiosk.

We look forward to meeting you.

Pongo's day to remember

By James Richings

jamesr@taylornewspapers.co.uk

IT'S the day Pongo the Pig has been waiting for: his birthday.

And children will be able to celebrate with him as 'Pongo's Party' debuts at The Haymarket.

But it is turning into a day to forget for the lovable pig, as it seems all of his friends have forgotten about Pongo's big day.

Sheena the sheep is rehearsing with her band, Marty McDonald is busy with his parcels, Molly-Moo the cow is too busy baking and Sally the scarecrow is in the middle of decorating.

But Pongo is determined to try make this the best birthday ever.

"This really is one for the whole family as both children and adults alike are encouraged to sing, shout and join in with the actions and signs," co-creator Martin Parsons told the Observer.

"The music within the show is lively and modern although all the songs themselves are traditional things like The Hokey Cokey, Twinkle Twinkle, I am the Music Man and of course Old MacDonald, so it's a great opportunity for the grown-ups to share these familiar songs with the younger ones.

"Sometimes it's the children teaching the parents though!

"During one of our 'Marty MacDonald's Farm' performances, it was great to see a young Polish girl proudly teaching her mother the nursery rhymes she had learnt at preschool with which her mum was unfamiliar.

"Her daughter soon changed that!"

'Pongo's Party' was thought up by Martin and Kate Ashmead, who are no strangers to success in children's theatre.

The husband and wife duo have worked on various family shows including 'Tweenies Live' and 'Sooty's Magic Castle'.

At The Haymarket, in Wote Street Martin and Kate will be joined by former CBeebies presenters Justin Fletcher and Nicole Davis - who will voice Pongo the Pig and Molly-Moo the Cow.

"The reaction you get from a young audience can't be beaten," Kate said.

"This is a totally interactive show and to be a part of something which sees young people singing and shouting and yet also watching and listening intently is an amazing feeling.

"We also do a meet-and-greet after the performance where it is wonderful to actually share the audience's experience of the show."

The shows, on Saturday, July 11, and Sunday, July 12, are suitable for children aged three to seven.

Tickets cost £12, and both shows start at 2pm.

Choir concert

THE Phoenix Community Choir will perform at The Phoenix Theatre and Arts Centre tomorrow night, Thursday, July 9.

All of the proceeds will go to charity with tickets costing from £3.50 to £4.50.

The choir starts at 7.30pm at the theatre in Station Road.

School fete

ASHFORD Hill Primary School is set to host its school fete on Saturday, July 11.

Activities including a mega slide, bouncy castle, go karts and Punch and Judy show will all run at the Ashford Road-based school.

The free event starts at Midday and finishes at 3pm.

Dance variety

THE Lisa Jane School of Dance will be at The Anvil on Saturday, July 11.

Performing their show 'The World is Not Enough', dancers will pay tribute to influential singers, songwriters and composers from all over the world at the Churchill Way venue.

The show will include ballet, modern, tap, contemporary and street jazz.

Two performances will take place at 2pm and 7.30pm.

Tickets cost from £12 to £14.

Competition

WIN tickets to Fairport's Cropredy 2015!

ANYONE attending a village fete in Cropredy in the 70's would have looked at you as if you were insane had you tried to convince them that nearly 40 years later Fairport Convention's contribution to village life was to grow to one of the most loved festivals in the country.

From its simple musical session over an afternoon the festival has grown to a three day monster that draws 20,000 fans to see up to twenty different bands that cover a wide range of music.

This year's headliners for the 36th festival include Emmylou Harris, Rodney Crowell and Level 42 and the customary Saturday night closing performance from host band Fairport Convention will be preceded by a set from Al Stewart. Other notable acts include Trad Arrr, Dreadzone and Katzenjammer on Thursday; ahab, Judith Owen, Skinny Lister, Sker-rvore, Fish, and The Proclaimers on Friday; Richard Digance, Kevin

Closing date:

Monday, June 29

Dempsey and Rosie Carson, The New Grasscutters, Band of Friends and Toyah Wilcox on Saturday. As in previous years, Cropredy will feature the winners of the BBC Radio 2 Young Folk Award.

If it was just the music it would be enough but Cropredy also has an amazing relaxed atmosphere that is unequalled at any other UK summer event. This year the festival runs from Thursday the 13th to Saturday 15th of August. For more details and to book

tickets visit www.fairportconvention.com

We have a family ticket pack for the weekend for one lucky winner who will get to enjoy three days of good music and real ale. The ticket pack includes a pair of adult weekend tickets, camping ticket and up to three under 12 child tickets.

Second prize is a pair of adult tickets to the Saturday.

All you have to do to be in with a chance of winning one of these amazing prizes is answer this simple question:

Q: Which band is playing the closing set of the festival?

The tale of Robin Hood and his Merry Followers

THE classic story about Robin Hood will be performed at Basingstoke's Proteus Creation Space on Monday, July 13 and Tuesday, July 14.

It is performed by youngsters aged between eight and 12 years old who are part of a Basingstoke youth theatre company called Pro-Pellers.

'Robin Hood and his Merry Followers' will see the title character go on a crazy journey through Sherwood Forest, as the gang battle against the evil Prince John and his ruthless henchmen to try and save King Richard's kingdom.

"Every young person is unique and I strive to enable the participants to 'get creative' with their character and really take ownership of the part," director Lizzy Price told the Observer.

"Hopefully audiences will see that individual creativity shining through, and I love it when the whole production comes together on opening night.

"Overall, the best thing about directing a youth theatre production is watching young people, who may have started out slightly shy and reticent, really blossom into the role and enjoy the experience."

The two performances at the Council Road venue will be a big moment for the young actors and actresses as this will be the first time that they perform at the Creation Space - previous productions have taken place in Central Studio.

The nerves of the children will undoubtedly be on Lizzy's mind as months of preparation and rehearsing comes down to two performances next Monday and Tuesday evening.

However, the director and full-time teacher is confident that the shows will run very smoothly.

"By far the most stressful things are those eventualities that you cannot foresee or predict," Lizzy added.

"For example, this year the lead character had to pull out as their family moved away from Basingstoke, so they were no longer able to be part of the youth theatre.

"However, on the upside this has given another cast member the opportunity to take on a bigger role and they have really shone as a result.

"This is a unique take on the classic tale.

"But I have really let the children put their own spin on the characters, with the jester coordinating his own moves, and our hags will be performing on roller-skates!"

Tickets cost from £3.30 to £5.50, with both shows starting at 7pm.

Clay dinosaurs

BASINGSTOKE'S Willis Museum will host a 'Clay Dinosaurs' workshop this Saturday, July 11.

Families will be able to make whatever prehistoric creature they like at the Lesser Market venue, which starts at 10.30am and lasts for two hours.

Film night

LAST year's blockbuster 'Birdman' will be shown at The Phoenix Theatre and Arts Centre next Wednesday, July 15.

Starring Michael Keaton, Emma Stone, Zach Galifianakis and Edward Norton, the movie focuses on Riggan Thomson (Keaton), a washed up Hollywood actor who is best known for playing the superhero Birdman decades previously.

The film has won a total of 122 awards.

Rated 15, the film starts at 7.30pm, with tickets costing from £3.50 to £5.

School play

STUDENTS from the Hatch Warren Infant School will perform at The Haymarket on Wednesday, July 15.

The youngsters will be showing their play 'Out of this World', which will include dancing, a choir, recorder players and a ukulele ensemble.

The performance starts at 6.30pm.

PHILHARMONIA ORCHESTRA
"Sibelius' Karelia Suite was one of his first great successes, using music written for a patriotic pageant in a region of Finland close to the Russian border. Glazunov's passionately lyrical and undeservedly overlooked Violin Concerto dates from 1904, a period when the composer was at the height of his creative powers. Sibelius' second symphony was written largely in Italy and inhabits a very different musical world from the northern darkness of his first. The sense of renewal and exploration continues through its four movements before building inexorably to the final thrilling brass theme."

Citroën C4 Cactus wins Tow Car Award

THE Citroën C4 Cactus won an award at this year's Tow Car Award.

The 2014 vehicle picked up the 'Best Ultralight Tow Car' prize last month at the Caravan Club-run awards.

Judges gave the car four out of five stars during a ceremony at Woburn Abbey in Bedfordshire.

The score was based on the car without a caravan or trailer, how well it tows with a caravan or trailer, and practicality.

Citroën launched the new Citroën C4 Cactus in September last year.

It was tested by a team of judges from Practical Caravan, The Camping and Caravanning Club and What Car? at the Motor Industry Research Association proving ground in the Midlands in April.

The judges rated the C4 Cactus for aspects including high-speed stability, emergency braking, hill-starts and everyday practicality.

Judges praised the French vehicle stating: "If you tow a trailer tent and don't want or need a bigger car, the Citroën C4 Cactus is a great choice.

"The Citroën shows a reasonable turn of speed, but as we all know, stability is far more important than pace when towing and this is where the Cactus really presses home its advantage."

Mike Wilson, head of Citroën marketing, collected the award at a ceremony in the Sculpture Gallery at Woburn Abbey on June 11.

"It's brilliant news that the C4 Cactus continues to set the benchmark in this highly competitive segment," Mike said.

"This Tow Car Award adds to the impressive catalogue of achievements for this ground-breaking new Citroën model and ably demonstrates its credentials as a highly versatile and practical family hatchback."

The Citroën C4 Cactus is available from £12,990 on the road.

Porter leads blitzing bowling performance

By Christian Wilson

A SUPERB individual bowling display inspired Basingstoke and North Hants to victory for the second week in a row on Saturday.

Six quick-fire wickets from Graham Porter did the damage as the Bountymen steam-rolled local rivals Hartley Wintney to win by 151 runs.

The home side were bowled all out for just 73 runs as the lethal Porter (6-15) came within a whisker of matching Matthew Thankachan's seven-wicket haul of seven days earlier against Calmore Sports.

Seamer Martyn James also finished with figures of 3-21 as Basingstoke's bowlers made up for yet another underwhelming batting performance from the Southern League Division One side.

The Bountymen's form with the bat has been their Achilles heel for much of this season, but that did not stop captain Chris Froud from turning down the option to field first after winning the toss on the Village Green.

But while Froud started confidently, fellow opener Craig Williamson (4) did not as he skied a shot from the bowling of Tommy Flanders into the grateful hands of Jamie Teale inside the second over.

Steve Bucksey (21) tried to steady the ship alongside Froud before he too misjudged a shot and found himself cheaply back in the pavilion.

The arrival of Mitch Stokes (36) saw the run rate quicken, until skipper Froud's (45) dismissal just five runs shy of his half-century prompted the wicket of the big hitting batsman the following over at the hands of Chris Jolley (3-38).

An unbeaten 24 from Thankachan managed to drag Basingstoke's score up to 224-8 by the end of 50 overs to ensure that they just missed out on maximum batting points by a single run.

But the visitors more than made up for their shortcomings with the bat with their response with the ball as Porter came flying out of the blocks to trap Hartley opener Aaron Wivell lbw with the second ball of the innings.

And the bowler repeated the trick in the third over to remove Matt Kerr, before Daniel Plume walked for a golden duck off of his next delivery to leave the home side on 2-3.

James then struck three times to remove Jack Hersh (5), Scott Baldwin (5) and captain Teale (0) as Basingstoke began to run rampant.

Will Ross (21) and Richard Hill (32) attempted a late fight back until they became Porter's fifth and sixth victims to leave Hartley humiliated and all out for just 73.

The Bountymen rose to second spot in the league on the back of the win, with a home tie with Liphook and Ripsley up next at May's Bounty on Saturday.

Hook humbled at home

A RARE home defeat for Hook and Newnham Basics against Bournemouth on Saturday ensured that they slipped from their perch at the top of the table.

Victories for New Milton and local rivals Basingstoke and North Hants ensured that Hook dropped to third place in the Southern League Division One after a poor batting display.

A crushing 157 run showing from Kieran Thomson had helped them to victory the previous week, but neither the opener nor any of his teammates were able to replicate such a performance against a stubborn Bournemouth side.

Matt Buckingham top scored with 24 as Hook were bowled all out for just 106 in under 32 overs to set up a seemingly simple task for the visitors in response.

Home bowler Shane Brewer

(2-18) did some damage early on, but the arrival of Joshua Finnie (26) to the crease alongside Martin Miller (23) soon settled Bournemouth.

Spencer Champ claimed his only wicket of the match to break the partnership by removing Miller, but Matt Jones's 21 carried on where the pair had left off to ensure that Bournemouth reached 109-5 with time to spare to claim a five-wicket victory.

Fixtures released

RUGBY: The fixtures for the new London Two South West season have been released as Basingstoke RFC look to bounce back from last year's disastrous relegation campaign.

The Down Grange club will travel to Weybridge Vindals on September 19 for the opening game of the season, with KSC Old Boys coming to town for the first home match seven days later.

Basingstoke faced the drop for the second year in a row after a 15-point deduction for fielding an ineligible player earlier in the campaign.

Return to form

GOLF: Basingstoke golfer Stuart Archibald claimed a top-10 finish last week at the Eagle Orchid Scottish Masters to end his recent bad run on the PGA Euro Pro Tour.

The 31-year-old recovered from a poor opening day to not drop a single shot in the last 33 holes - shooting rounds of 66 and 65 to finish tied for sixth on eight under par.

Thursday's strong finish ensured that he comfortably steered clear from missing the cut for what would've been the fifth time this season.

EPL expanded

ICE HOCKEY: Basingstoke Bison will come up against nine other teams instead of eight in the English Premier League next season after Hull Pirates joined the league.

The inclusion of the newly formed Pirates comes after the recent demise of Hull Stingrays from Hull's Elite League.

Fixtures for the new season have not yet been released ahead of the start of the new campaign in early September.

WILLIAMS SIGNS NEW DEAL WITH DRAGONS

BASINGSTOKE Town continued their preparations for the new season on Saturday by encouraging another member of last season's squad to pen a new deal with the club.

Forward Manny Williams has become the 13th player from last year's play-off campaign to commit to another year at the Soccer AM Stadium.

The 33-year-old played a big role in the Dragons' record-breaking third place finish in the Conference South last term - contributing 11 goals to the cause.

And Town manager Jason Bristow was in no doubt of the importance of keeping Williams ahead of the start of the newly renamed National League South season on August 8.

He said: "Manny's another important signing for us, vastly intelligent and his experience is invaluable to the squad."

"Alongside this, he's a very popular character and has a good rapport with everyone connected to the club which is an important factor - we're glad to have him back on board."

The former Sierra Leone international has scored a total of 36 goals in his two and a half years at the club since joining on a free from Hayes and Yeading in December 2012.

Williams' signing came 24 hours after the fixtures for the upcoming season were released, with the Dragons facing a tricky away trip to Ebbsfleet United on the opening day.

Bath City will visit Soccer Am Stadium on Tuesday, August 11, for the first home game of the season, with other highlights including a trip to Oxford City on Tuesday, August 18 and a home clash with last year's play-off rivals Whitehawk on Tuesday, October 27.

Friday also saw the unveiling of the club's new home kit.

Full-back Tom Bird said: "I like the away shirt so having the same design for the home shirt makes sense."

"I can't wait for the new season to get going."

Fans will get the chance to see players in the new kit next Tuesday night when League Two side AFC Wimbledon come to town for the opening friendly of Basingstoke's pre-season schedule.
